

The Keals' Women's Institute

This W.I. is a local and geographical branch which started around 70 years ago. It is bound by the rules and procedures of the national organisation, the National Federation of Women's Institutes but holds its own local constitution. Its officers and committee members are democratically elected annually in March each year.

Membership is open to any woman living within the branch's catchment area which is East Keal, Keal Cotes and West Keal.

Aims and Objectives

The Keals' W.I. Has a commitment to developing strong communities and aims to:

1. Provide all women with the opportunity to learn and develop new skills
2. Enable women to make new friends
3. Enable women to have a voice on issues of local and national importance

Activities

The Keals' W.I. Meets regularly on the second Thursday of the month at 7.00 pm at the Keals' Village Hall, Boston Road, West Keal. Women who are interested in seeing more or thinking of joining are welcome to drop in to a meeting.

We have guest speakers and refreshments are provided.
